MAYOR SORDILLO ATTENDS OPENING OF STEAM WORKS STUDIO

On Saturday, February 17, 2018, Mayor Victor Sordillo of Warren Township celebrated the opening of STEAM Works at 125 Washington Valley Road in Warren with a ribbon-cutting ceremony. Mayor Sordillo took a tour of the facility with STEAM Works center director Jasbinder Seehra, where STEAM Works instructors provided details of their programs and curriculum.

STEAM Works Studio is a kid's enrichment center for Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math. At the Warren center, STEAM Works will conduct regular weekend classes, after-school enrichment programs, as well as Summer programs (June – August) teaching various levels of Robotics, Electronics, Animation, 3D modeling and printing, JAVA, Python, HTMLS, JavaScript and Game Development.

Mayor Sordillo stated, "The Township Committee and I are pleased that STEAM Works chose Warren to locate their operations. We wish them great success."
