"Warren Township is a special community," said Township Committeeperson Carolann Garafola. Niche.com has rated Warren Township as an A+ Community for schools, crime & safety, good for families, health and fitness, and outdoor activities.

"The Township Committee remains committed to ensuring that our community serves the needs of its residents and maintains or grows the value of our homes," said Committeeman Gary DiNardo.

Warren Township has been rated as a community with low crime, and in November 2017, received an Aaa Bond rating from Moody's Investor Services.
