SCLSNJ to Remain Closed in Accordance with Governor Murphy's Quarantine Recommendations

(Somerset County, NJ: April 2, 2020) All Somerset County Library System of New Jersey branches will remain closed to the public in accordance with Governor Murphy's executive order. The Library System will continue to evaluate and communicate future plans as information becomes available.

Are you feeling lonely? Talk with us on Facebook, <https://www.facebook.com/SCLSNJ>, or Twitter, <https://twitter.com/sclsnj>, for:

- #MythbustingMondays
- #DialAStoryTuesdays
- #WeCountWednesdays (all Census, all the time)
- #BookTalkThursdays
- #FreeResourceFridays

Chat or email us at <https://sclsnj.org/research-learn/ask-a-librarian> Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. with questions about library services, help with research needs, exploring online library resources, downloading materials, receiving a librarian-curated book recommendations, and more.

Beginning April 6, 2020, request a 30-minute virtual, personalized one-on-one online session with library staff subject matter expert through our new Ask an SCLSNJ Expert service. Patrons will be able to get assistance with the library's website, databases, research questions, career assistance, small business resources, readers' advisory, homework resource assistance, mobile devices, library apps, and more.

Remember, our digital resources will be available to ALL Somerset County residents, whether your library is part of the County System or not, through May 31, 2020. Apply for your free digital library card now at sclsnj.org/besafeathome. We are in this together, Somerset County. Let's all #BeSafeAtHome - while still learning, connecting, exploring, discovering, playing, reading, and more!

Important to note, this is a temporary closure for the time during which there is potential risk of community transmission of COVID-19. The Library System appreciates the support of our community members during this time. Any questions or concerns about these temporary changes should be directed to Auger via email at bauger@sclibnj.org or phone (908) 458.8401.
